

17 Shawnee County children have died by suicide in the past four years.

Make sure someone you care about isn't next.

The "Suicide: Talk about it. Save a life" initiative proudly presents

Kevin Hines

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE JUMP SURVIVOR

Tuesday, November 13, 7 p.m.
Topeka Performing Arts Center

214 S.E. 8th Ave. | Topeka
No admission charge | Open to the public

More than 2,000 people have attempted to take their own lives by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge. Only 26 have survived. Kevin Hines is one of them.

Since his attempt, he has shared his story of pain, hope and miraculous recovery. Guests will better understand the mindset of a suicidal person and learn what we can all do to prevent deaths by suicide in our community. Kevin's honesty and positivity have inspired thousands of people. He'll inspire you, too.

Presentation underwritten by:

- Family Service & Guidance Center
- Topeka Community Foundation
- Bartlett & West
- Shawnee County Suicide Prevention Coalition

The "Suicide: Talk about it. Save a life" initiative is comprised of Family Service & Guidance Center; all five Shawnee County public school districts; Hayden High School; and the Shawnee County Suicide Prevention Coalition.

Suicide: Talk about it.
Save a life.