

PC/PS PTO Minutes
December 3, 2015
Pauline South Library 5:30

1. Call to order – Mark Thiel – (President – Gary Knoles – absent)
2. Principals' Reports –
 - Mr. Holman – PS – Fantastic turnout for Thanksgiving meal – great day for home-school relations – 10 middle school students helped with the event for community service; staff discussed how vital the next three weeks are for learning – schedules will be full of activities, but we will ensure reading and math are not eliminated throughout the holiday time; through a generous donation from 20/30 Club – we have winter coats for any students in need; indoor recess – if temperature or wind chill goes below 20 degrees, students will be inside – either in gym for “Walk and Talk” or in classrooms for games, drawing, etc... 20 degree rule will sometimes pertain to walkers, as well – especially on extremely frigid days; concerts coming up next week; musical, “Yes, Virginia,” will be performed on Friday, December 11 at 6:30 – students will see the musical during school; 437 librarian fundraiser at Barnes and Noble Saturday, December 5 from 9:00-4:00
 - Mr. Hageman – PC – Great turnout for Thanksgiving meal – thanks to the cooks for their hard work and generosity; nice to see all the new spirit wear around the school; currently asking families for food donations for community food drive; staff selects two families from PC each year to purchase gifts for (adopt a family); great time for teaching and learning – staff is doing a great job of maintaining focus on critical learning time and incorporating holiday activities
