

PC/PS PTO Minutes
March 2, 2017
Pauline South Library 5:30

1. Call to order (Gary Knoles, President)
2. Principals' Reports –
 - Mr. Hageman – PC – KS Supreme Court ruled today on the adequate school funding – determined schools are not being funded adequately; Melissa Dunn moving to WRHS; PC has hired Mallory Scott for Kindergarten, Libby Devon for 3rd grade; elementary restructuring in district to address needs – technology coach positions will be going away, this is not to say that technology is not a priority – the restructuring is budget neutral – greater need for academic and behavioral interventions – these needs will be met through new positions (new SpEd Interventionist, psychologist (shared with PS), shared behavior coach (Bryant Moyer))
 - Mr. Holman – PS – Thanked members for being at the meeting – truly appreciate everyone's dedication; restructuring is setting us up for success with almost immediate impacts; AimsWeb testing (screeners to advise on student progress), reading data looks impressive (growth from beginning of the to the middle of the year); one position open for next year – librarian – will name position next week; staff thanks PTO for the meals provided at conferences
3. Treasurer's Report (Deanna Hutsen/Shadow – open) – see report
 - Thank you from 6th grade for math program "Hands On Equations"
 - Monitors for schools
 - Approximately $1500 ($600-700 monitor) (by the beginning of the 2017-2018 school year)
 - Principals' proposals – talked with coffee shop at high school regarding software t.v.s, so we are just looking at a monitor
