

Daily Announcements

Wednesday, August 22, 2018/DISTRICT EARLY RELEASE

Attention Students: If you have not picked up your 2018 yearbook, please see Mrs. Luetje in Room G2342.

Are you ready for some football? Friday night our Jr Blues will be holding their Blue-White Football Scrimmage at 6:00 p.m. Cost of admission is one canned good. Please support our football team and Harvesters by attending the game and bringing something from your pantry to share with the community. AFJROTC will be collecting food throughout the week and at the game. Thanks for supporting AFJROTC, Harvesters, and our Jr. Blues!

The WRHS FFA group will have its first meeting this Thursday during club in Mr. Vandervort room, G375 for those interested in joining FFA. See you there.

Seniors: If you qualify for free/reduced lunch or your family makes less than $65,000 per year, please see Mrs. Frederickson in the counseling office to discuss two scholarship opportunities.

Staff members: Come to The Shack to redeem 25% off one item of your choice this week. The Shack has t-shirts, sweats, quarter zips, long sleeves, and much more! Offer ends Friday!

Beat Hayden shirts are available for $10 at The Shack. The first Hayden football game is coming up and you don't want to be without your gear. The Shack is open before school and during lunch!

Have you ever wanted to audition for a theatre production but feel like you'd have no idea what you're doing, or wish you could feel more prepared? All students are invited to a theatre audition workshop this Thursday after school. Come hear about what to expect in an audition, and get pointers that will make you more confident and successful!

Auditions for Shakespeare's famous romantic tragedy Romeo and Juliet will be held next Tuesday, August 28 after school. Don't let any Shakespeare fear keep you from trying out - anyone can do it! Come to the Little Theatre in B215 for audition forms and more information.

Have you seen the signs for the featured books? Visit the library to get your hands on the August featured books. See you soon.
