Ad deadline: second Friday in September

Dear WRHS Supporter,

The Chimes is a financially self-sufficient, student-run publication distributed to over 80% of the students and staff at Washburn Rural High School. We are offering businesses and supporters of WRHS the opportunity to be a yearbook sponsor. Your sponsorship will help fund a book that becomes a local piece of the Auburn Washburn School District's legacy. Your sponsorship will show students and the community that you support our efforts. We couldn't make the yearbook without you. We are offering four levels of support:

The Gold Level Package - $400

- Business logo placed on professionally produced color banner
- Business name and level of support listed in WRHS school newsletters
- Business name and level of support listed in WRHS school newspaper, The Blue Streak
  - Half page, full color ad in the Chimes yearbook
- Business name printed on the back of our staff t-shirts

The Blue Level Package - $300

- Business logo placed on professionally produced black & white banner
- Business name and level of support listed in WRHS school newsletters
- Business name and level of support listed in WRHS school newspaper, The Blue Streak
  - One fourth page, full color ad in the Chimes yearbook

The White Level Package - $200

- Business name and level of support listed in WRHS school newsletters
- One twelfth page, full color ad in the Chimes yearbook

Jr. Blues Sponsor - $50

- Business name and contact information listed in the Chimes yearbook

Please indicate your level of support and return this flyer to:

The WRHS Chimes Yearbook Staff
5900 S.W. 61st Street
Topeka, KS 66619

A yearbook student will contact you for ad information.
