Library News

In today's world of easy access to information, you cannot always trust that the information is accurate. How do you choose where to look for correct information? The students this month will be learning about trustworthy resources that have been around for years. The online Almanac, Encyclopedia, Dictionary, Thesaurus and Atlas are trusted resources that give accurate information. The authors and editors of these resources make sure that the information is up to date and trustworthy. Next time you need fast, trustworthy information try one of these resources, and they will lead you in the right direction.

Happy Reading

BRING LAWN CHAIRS

Mrs. Manker's class is still collecting soda tabs to donate to the Ronald McDonald House. We would like to thank everyone who has already donated. This year we have collected over 29 pounds. We will still be collecting soda tabs through the last day of school. You can drop off these off at Auburn Elementary between 8am – 4pm. All donations will be given to the Ronald McDonald House.
