

4th Grade #keeplearning Board #2

Even though we are not physically together, learning happens every day. This #keeplearning Board is designed to keep families and schools engaged with learning while we are apart.

The following lists of activities are at varying levels of difficulty. These are learning opportunities that you may choose to do at home with your child.

Social-Emotional	English Language Arts Read for 30 minutes EVERY DAY!	Writing	Math
What is the funniest joke you know? Find one or make one up! Share that joke with your family. Ask them to share a funny joke with you.	Today you're having a fire drill, extra recess, and birthday treats. Create a 6 frame comic strip about what your school day would look like with these extra activities thrown into your day! Include one complete sentence for each frame.	If you had $20 to do anything you wanted with, what would you do with it? Write a 5 sentence paragraph describing what you would do. Check for capitalization and punctuation.	Melissa is having a party. She has $126 to spend on ice cream. Each container of ice cream costs $6. How many containers of ice cream will she be able to purchase?
Make a list of 10 words and create a word search. Have someone in your family try to find all 10 words.	An idiom is an expression whose meaning is different from the literal meaning, such as It's raining cats and dogs. Think of an idiom. Divide your paper into two sections. Draw a picture of the literal meaning on one side and the new meaning (figurative) on the other. Some examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Cross your fingers - For good luck.</li> <li>• Get cold feet - Be nervous.</li> <li>• Giving the cold shoulder -</li> </ul>	Using a Venn Diagram, compare and contrast your two favorite animals. Complete the one-sentence summary. ___ and ___ are similar in that both ___, but _____ while _____.	Say your first 12 multiples for 6, 7, and 8 out loud. Every time you say an even number, jump!

	Ignore someone. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Have a change of heart - Changed your mind.</li> </ul>
Mindful eating: Take a deep breath before your first bite. As you eat, try to deliberately appreciate the taste, texture, and smell of your food. Then, discuss how each item made its way from the farm/field to your plate and how it nourishes your body.	Read out loud for 10 minutes. Every time you read a verb, stand up!	Write about your most precious possession. Use feelings and details to describe your item. Write a 5 sentence paragraph.	Find the Product. 64 x 83
Talk to your family about family members who live somewhere else. Draw a picture of them.	A simile is a comparison between two different things, using the words like or as. Complete each simile: She was as wise as ____. It was as old as ____. We laughed like ____.	Make a list of the top 5 things you like about spring. Choose your top 3 and write about them in a paragraph. Start with this sentence stem: After a long winter, I am happy it is spring because...	At the bookstore, Dan bought 14 books about The Civil War and 8 magazines about Abraham Lincoln. If books cost $13 and magazines cost $6, how much did Dan spend at the bookstore?
Find a location where you can sit quietly. Place one small object in your hand (ex: pen, pencil, bean, flower). Notice how heavy the object is. Think about what it feels like in your hand. Notice as many new things about this object as you can.	Correct the following sentence: every moment was fill with excitementt	Describe the weather outside your window. Write a 5 sentence paragraph using your 5 senses and details.	Dan drank <math>\frac{5}{6}</math> of a cup of orange juice in the morning and <math>\frac{5}{6}</math> of a cup of grape juice at night. How much juice did Dan drink? Turn the answer into a proper fraction.