Salute I: 3 Vertical Photos; 150 Words or Less

Jordan, you have had an incredible high school career. You received many accolades for your athletic accomplishments in both football and basketball during your time at Washburn Rural. Leading the football team to their first playoff victories in 25 years and being named first team in both sports. We are so proud of you because all of this doesn't happen without hard work and dedication. They also don't happen if you aren't driven for the right reasons. You always put your teammates and others ahead of any personal accomplishments. This is because you have a servant heart and a desire to serve the Lord. We are just as proud of you for your academic accomplishments and the countless hours you poured into the Unified Sports program. For all these reasons, we know, you are ready to face a whole new world of challenges.
Congratulations!
Love - Dad, Mom & Bryden

Don't ever lose your sense of adventure. There is a whole world out there waiting for you, and you should strive to see all of it. Explore. Dream. Discover. Take with you these two important lessons. There are never too many faces and don't forget your hulk hands.
I love you so much more than any words can say.

Eve, you are very ready to move out and assert your independence. I know this because you have let me tell your unique story and life lessons have shaped you into your own special being. You are a very kind, old soul, strong willed, and smart. Your friendships will serve you well in life. Family road trips, journaling, endless matching sibling outfits, sibling videos and photo shoots, the kitchen, Ooze, cooking books, Lego's, Bike, dressing up Lucy & Sheila, SS Club, hope for away, and though I don't want to know about (3) how that's your years. Remember the fun times. You have numerous opportunities to pursue your interests and passions. Move a great time of life (not 100% true here). I am very proud of who you are. Your father would also be very proud. Work hard and you will accomplish all your goals.

Love, Maggie (Mommy)
